Six SAC students will represent the college at a meeting of the California Junior College Student Government Conference at Los Angeles it was announced this week by Bob Elsner, AS president who will lead the delegation. The conference is scheduled for November 20, 21, and 22 with headquarters at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel.

Highest Annual Rating Awarded Del Ano Staff

First class rating was recently awarded the 1952 Del Ano by Columbia University in their annual critical service and judging, according to Royal C. Marten, Del Ano advisor. The award was presented for the "outstanding theme and planning," according to Mr. Marten.

Mr. Marten gave particular mention to George Bartell, who designed the cover and did the layout art work for the book, and Linus Dewald and Barry Babcock who were responsible for the outstanding pictures. Other photographers on the staff were Doug Burton and Keith Mathews.

The object of the '52 staff was to produce a book which would be wide open, in order to get away from the past style. The main object was to "produce a book which would be pleasing to the eye and to put over the stories through a large number of carefully selected photographs."

Plans by the staff for this year's book include an almanac theme with George Bartell again doing the art work and Eleanor Pettis literary editor.

FERMENT TEST DEADLINE TODAY

Selective Service headquarters has sent out a final reminder to students to submit applications for the Qualification Test.

Midnight Saturday, November 1 is the deadline for submitting applications. All applications received after that time will not be considered.

Consultation Before Dropping Class Urged At Recent Faculty Meeting

Procedure for student withdrawal was recently released following a meeting of the faculty which urged that instructors be given the opportunity to counsel the student before withdrawal and to stabilize the student's program.

In order to withdraw from a class, the student must file a petition with the instructor of the class from which he wishes to withdraw. In turn the teacher will consider the student's ability, standing in the class, attendance, and records in other classes. If the instructor agrees to the withdrawal, he will give the student a petition for Change of Program to fill out, stating his reason for dropping the course, and the amount of units he will carry without the course in question.

Instructor Signs
If the instructor does not approve the withdrawal, and cannot persuade him to remain in class, the instructor should sign the withdrawal. He should state at the bottom his reasons for SAC delegates to the conference will be Bob Elsner, John Dowden, Marilyn Larzelere, George Bartell, Nancy Robison and Bob Merker. Faculty advisor will be SAC Dean of Men John Johnson.

The aims of the conference are to bring representatives of all the California JC's together to discuss common problems. Discussions are held on the various phases of student government, finances, social activities and many other phases of college life.

This is the fourteenth such conference which is held twice during the school year, once each semester. This semester the conference is being hosted by Los Angeles City College and the other Los Angeles JC's.

Pep Assembly Today at 11

A half hour pep assembly will be held in the cafeteria at 11:00 today. During the assembly all other student activities will be closed. This includes the library, cafeteria, lounge and snack bar. These will all open as soon as the rally is over.

AMS Gives Cards, Chess To Union

New playing cards and a new chess set were recently provided by the AMS for use by students during their spare time. These include pinocle decks as well as regular decks and are to be used in the student union and snack bar.

Students wishing to use them must check them out from Dorothy Conforth, snack bar waitress. They may be used at any time. Students must take care of them for they will not be replaced.

Game, Dance Planned For Gala Two-Day SAC Homecoming

A gala two day homecoming is planned for SAC students and alumni November 13 and 14. Festivities will include selection of a homecoming queen, the homecoming football game, an assembly and will be climaxed by the homecoming dance Friday night.

Many clubs, organizations, and individuals are making ready for SAC's annual event honoring SAC alumni. Clubs at present are backing their nominees for queen in the homecoming queen contest.

Spinsters, Vets club, Hidas, Bachelors, Meninas, and the Young Farmers, all backed by the inter-club council, are actively working toward making the two days of homecoming a success.

Members of the student body will be admitted to the dance by presenting their student body ticket and a guest will also be included. Dancing will last from 10:30 until 12:30.

The patrons from Santa Ana College will include: Miss Genevieve Humiston, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moomaw, Miss Alice Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Venstrom.

YOUR VOTE COUNTS

Many SAC students will be eligible to vote for the first time in the coming presidential election.

The right to vote is not only a privilege but an obligation. It is the obligation of every American citizen. Our republic is based upon this obligation and without it, freedom would disappear.

Upon the young voters, many of them independent, rest much of the responsibility of electing an honest, responsible man to uphold our way of life.

To you who are eligible to vote: Are you going to waste this precious birthright by not voting on November 4? Study the issues, the men running for office, the platforms of the various parties, and then go to the polls November 4 and VOTE! YOUR VOTE COUNTS.

CREDIT WHERE CREDIT IS DUE

Although the college paper believes in bringing before the SAC student body things that should be changed, the El Don is not devoted entirely to reprimanding policies but also in complimenting things that should be complimented. This week it was brought to our attention that a big change is apparent in the student union.

We believe in giving credit where credit is due. We believe credit is due this week to the students who spend their spare time in the union. The union was cleaner this week than it has been in a long time.

More peaceful games of checkers (played with bottle caps), have replaced the more violent forms of activity that were previously the vogue.

But getting back to the subject the EL DON thanks those who perhaps heeded our editorials of last week and have helped make the student union a much more pleasant place to spend our spare time.

A NEGLECTED GENERATION

Six months ago, in campaigning for the Republican presidential nomination, Dwight Eisenhower stated the oft repeated precept, "If you're old enough to fight, you're old enough to vote."

I agree with the general.

With over 150,000 draftees under 21 due to be called the next three months, I feel that the eighteen year old should be granted the franchise. Yet only one state if the forty-eight in the union grants this privilege to its so-called "youth."

Intelligence and responsibility is not measured in years. The 19 year old draftee on the front lines in Korea is in every way entitled to cast his ballot as the forty year old business man whose freedom is being protected by this draftee and thousands of others like him.

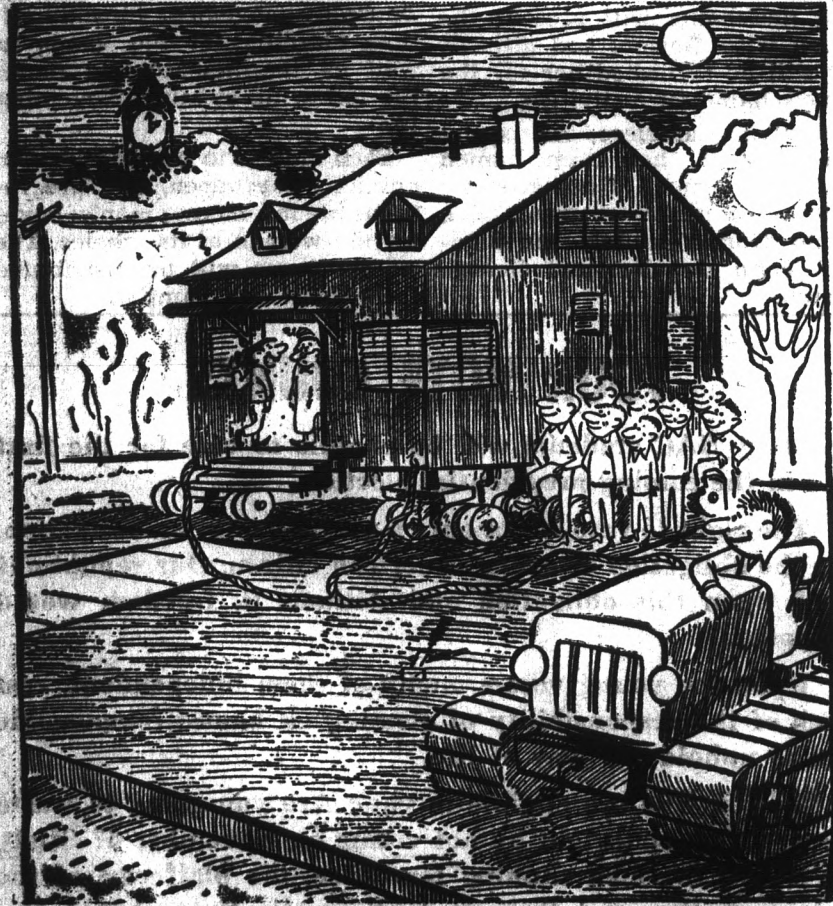

People can argue that an 18 year old is not mature enough to decide on candidates and issues before the people, but those who argue most vociferously against the 19 year old voting are those who don't even have the maturity to take the time and effort to vote themselves. Only 52% of those eligible (those who REGISTERED in the primary) in 1948 voted in the nation election.

Regardless of who is elected November 4th or what party wins the majority in Congress, I think an eighteen year voting law as an amendment to the Constitution should be initiated in Congress and passed to the people for ratification. Barring this, California should give the franchise to its 18 year olds.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

By Dick Bihler

"Good morning and 'Happy Halloween' professor Snarf—Trick or Treat"

Campus Spotlight

By BOB and BILL

If you watch the parking lot closely some afternoon, you may catch a glimpse of a '52 Ford fast departing SAC. At the wheel is Marilyn Larzelere, who isn't really in as big a hurry as she appears to be. It's just that Marilyn's a busy girl.

On campus, it's the same way. Marilyn is a social science major who likes to ski and likes to sing. Hence, she's a member of the Swing Choir and last year, a member of the Ski Club. Skiing being seasonal, she finds time for Las Meninas and Las Doncellas.

Any ordinary girl would draw the line here. But we're not talking about just an ordinary girl. She is the AS Social Commissioner, as well as chairman of the Homecoming Committee. And in addition, she has been selected a delegate to the California State Student Government Conference.

When we interviewed her, Marilyn was reluctant to divulge all her whims and fancies, likes and dislikes. So, we're short on vital statistics. She did disclose that she stood 5'7" from stocking feet to brown hair, was endowed with green eyes, and liked to be busy. On that, there can be no argument.

Editor's note: Each issue of the El Don, staffers Bob Hicks and Bill Wells will select some campus personality to feature in this column. Those chosen will receive a free 11x14 photo from Oliver and Loving Studios, located in the Arcade Shops on South Main.

Page Proofings

By BOB HICKS

"The Diary of a Young Girl," written by an author named Frank, is one of the new books the college library is offering. No one seems to know what it's about, but with a title like that, it ought to be good.

Probably one of the most useful new books in the library is one entitled "Better Clothes for Your Money." Dealing with selecting and care of clothing, types of stores, seasonal buying, and price factors, this one should be of use to every coed, teacher, career girls and housewives as well. The book gives specific information on workmanship, sizes, content and care of merchandise.

Hemingway's latest, "The Old Man of the Sea," considered by many to be his best, is now available in book form and the library has it. For the first time in its long history, "Life" magazine printed a novel in its entirety. This was Hemingway's "Old Man." If "Life" liked it that well, Mr. Hemingway must have outdone himself.

Those who read Thomas Costain's "Black Rose" will enjoy his newest historical novel, "The Silver Chalice."

Cartoon 'Little Man' Begins This Week

The nationally famous cartoon feature "Little Man on Campus" makes its initial appearance on the El Don feature page this week.

Drawn by cartoonist Dick Bihler, "Little Man" runs in over 110 college newspapers and is popular on all college campuses.

Characters "Worthal," "Professor Snarf," and "Ellie May" have become the subjects for dances, pep rallies, carnivals and the like on many campuses. Creator Bihler is now teaching art at Greeley College in Colorado.

The El Don staff hopes that "Worthal" and his pals will be enjoyed and appreciated by the El Don student body.

EL DON MAILBAG

Dear Editor:

In answer to a letter written by Peter Matthews in the last issue of the El Don—

We take it that he doesn't think much of the Santa Ana College girls. We wonder if he ever stopped to consider that there might be something wrong with the men...

And besides, before he can make such rash statements it seems to us that he would have to know most all the girls on campus, (we know he doesn't know us!) rather than judging the whole by a few!

We also visited a few campuses before SAC and also had a great disappointment in the male quality here. Of course we have only been here a month and a half and we don't think we have the right to judge too severely. Anyway we are looking and hoping for a brighter outlook in the future.

Two disillusioned coeds

Muqbil will be here only for the present semester. He then intends to continue his U. S. education at UCLA or Davis. Besides his agricultural studies he is also interested in drawing and is presently enrolled in an art course here.

Life Similar to U. S.

"Americans," he states, "do not have a very accurate conception of what life is really like in Iraq." He brought out several interesting examples in his interview.

"We don't ride camels," he insisted, "but we have cars—American cars."

The young people of Baghdad do not work when they are finished with our equivalent of high school but rather go on to college.

No Dates For Men

Young men do not have dates with young women in Baghdad. About the only women with whom these young hopefuls ever come in contact are friends of the family, or co-eds met at foreign colleges and universities.

Muqbil attended Baghdad College, where he learned to speak English. "I studied English for five years," he admitted, "and French for two years. But I cannot speak it," he added hastily. "Too many words and things to learn."

Muqbil spent the last two years in Egypt, returning this summer to Baghdad before coming to the United States.

Dear Editor:

Agreeing that Mr. Matthews probably justified generally his statements, one still wishes it would be a little more explicit.

Does he want to find a woman who fills out a sweater or a conversation?

Grammer Schools To Germany; Alumni Trail Goes Halfway Around The World

News was received this week from four SAC alumni, Ellsie Kittleson, Fred Yamada, Hilda Anne Johnson, and Mrs. Merle Connor. Miss Kittleson and Mrs. Connor graduated last year while Yamada graduated in '50 and Miss Johnson in '49.

Works at Settlement House

Fred Yamada, who has been serving in the army for two years, last week returned to the college campus for a visit with old friends and teachers. Yamada was stationed in Germany and France while in the army. During his time in Germany he continued his studies at the University of Heidelberg.

Hilda Anne Johnson is now working in San Antonio, Texas, doing group work at a settlement house there.

Ellsie Kittleson is now attending the University of Redlands. While at SAC last year Miss Kittleson won a scholarship to that school in a competitive examination with other junior college students from all over California. She reports that she is majoring in English and has had 66 of her 68 units accepted at the university.

Teaches Country School

Mrs. Merle Connor who graduated last year is now teaching in Baker, California. She is teaching 28 pupils in a small grade school there in classes up through the ninth grade. While at SAC Mrs. Connor was active in creative writing and her stories were published in the Tavern Post, campus literary magazine.

Aladdin's Lamp Termed Success

Playing to over 1500 patrons in a matinee and evening performance, the costume fantasy "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp" was termed a rousing success by director C. L. Ford.

Combining Santa Ana College and high school drama talent, the play was presented for the elementary school children of Santa Ana in the high school auditorium October 22.

In addition to the performance in Santa Ana, the troupe also traveled to Stanton the following Friday to give the play for the grammar school children there.

The production starred high school dramatists Dean Wills and Nan Love as Aladdin and the princess, while collegians Clyde Wilson, Joyce Catherina, Bob Merker and Tom Moore played major supporting roles.

Former Santa Ana College students Bob Williams and Elizabeth Elliot assisted in costume design and scenery. Miss Elliot also directed the slave girl sequences.

Others in the play were Lynn Brown, Joanne Gruver, Ralph Kruger, Chuck Campbell, John Dowden, Jeannine Wilkinson, Virginia Hoff, Barbara Brown, Margie Menefee, Roma Van, and Jean Willoughby.

The play was sponsored by the Santa Ana chapter of the American Association of University women and the local P.T.A.

Ex Editor Pays Visit To El Don Advisor, Staff

Maury Duke, Santa Ana College journalism graduate and El Don editor in 1947, recently paid a visit to journalism advisor Carl Venstrom and this year's newspaper staff.

Duke, a San Jose political science major, is awaiting a foreign service appointment from the U. S. state department. On receiving word of his acceptance, he will attend the Foreign Service Institute in Washington and spend six weeks preparing for the position of diplomatic courier, cryptographer, and chief clerk.

In addition to being El Don editor while at Santa Ana, Duke was president of the Tavern Tattlers, edited the Tavern Post, was vice-president of the International Relations Club, and was on the Associated Student executive board.

At present, Duke is working for Occidental Life Insurance Company of California.

Hell Day Pledges Survive Initiation

Many strange sights were afforded SAC students and faculty October 25 as members of the four women's clubs did their stunts for "Hell Day."

Causing heads to turn were the prospective Las Meninas members on their way to college in pin curls and yellow dunce caps with green net veiling. In addition to carrying the usual stack of books, the girls tugged along roller skates, wore baseball mitts and carried lunch pails to compensate for purses.

Gypsies also roamed the campus representing the new Las Gitanas members, as they attended their regular classes in peasant outfits, scarfs, costume jewelry, and brass earrings made from bottle rims.

Contrary to their title, the Spinster pledges shyly came to class as small girls dressed in short green skirts with checked aprons and bows in their hair. True to their temporary status, their appetites were typically manifested in licking suckers and lolypoys during the morning.

Drawing second glances were members pledging the Las Hildalgas club dressed as Spanish señoritas and senoras in unusual college attire. Bright skirts and blouses, black lace mantillas worn high on their heads, these girls were quite a sight.

Included in the Las Hildalgas initiatory duties was dusting and straightening books in the library.

SAC TO OFFER NARCOTICS COURSE; POLICE WILL STUDY EFFECTS, CURE

A course in narcotics will be given Orange County law officers next term, Stuart Carrier, evening division director announced today. The new course will be open only to members of law enforcement agencies during its first semester, Mr. Carrier disclosed.

Included in the narcotics study will be the effects of its use on humans from the criminologist's point of view.

Narcotic Recognition Taught

Another major portion of the program will be devoted to giving the officers training in the identification of the various types of narcotics in use, legally or under the counter.

Under Evening Division

The narcotics course will be under the direction of the evening division and will be one of the facets of formal police training.

Mr. Carrier stated that tentatively the course may be less specialized later on and open to interested students in the fall term of '53. According to Mr. Carrier, the course, as it is now set up would be of no practical value to any other than law officers.

San Bernardino, Don Coaches At Dinner Meeting

Coaches from both Santa Ana College and San Bernardino were guests at a dinner held recently by the Santa Ana Second Guessers Club and the Orange Down-town quarterbacks.

Representing SAC was coach "Bill" Cook and assistant coach John Ward. They remarked on the team's physical condition and reviewed the past contests.

On hand for San Bernardino was head coach Clyde Williams and his assistants. He also discussed the past experiences of the San Bernardino Valley College varsity.

Guest speaker was Elroy, "Crazy Legs" Hirsch, end on the Los Angeles Rams professional football team. Hirsch gave a summary of the games which the Rams have played so far, and what the causes have been in the losses which have resulted for the club.

SANTA ANA EDGED BY MOUNTIES 20-13, ALLEN SPARKS ATTACK

Sparked by the brilliant play of tailback Orin Allen, Mt. San Antonio overcame an early 7-0 Don lead and went on to hand Santa Ana its first loss of the season 20 to 13. An estimated turnout of 7500 witnessed the scuffle at Mt. San Antonio Saturday, October 17.

The triumph placed the Mounties on top of the Eastern Conference heap.

Huesca Rambles

Most of the spectators had hardly settled back in their seats when Augie Huesca took a delayed handoff from Bob Smith and scotted 58 yards for a touchdown. Jack Wilcox's kick split the up-rights and the Dons led, 7-0.

Then Allen took over. Paced by the big tailback's passing and running the Mounties moved 61 yards for the equalizer, Cash bulling over from the one. Weinhold converted to tie the score, 7 to 7.

Early in the second quarter Bryan fumbled on his own 37. Two plays gained 12 to the 25 yard line. Knapp was thrown for a three yard loss, but an unnecessary roughness penalty put the ball on the 14. Allen gained nine and four plays later fullback Cash crashed over right guard for the score. Weinhold's kick was low and the Mountaineers went into the dressing room with a 13-7 halftime margin.

Dons Tie Score

After taking the second half kickoff the Mounties couldn't gain and Cash punted out on the SAC 25. In four plays Huesca and Bryan combined to place the Dons on the Mt. San Antonio 21. Smith tossed to Bryan for seven. Huesca then sprinted wide around right end to even matters up. Wilcox missed the try for the extra point.

Midway in the fourth period the Mounties drove 81 yards on a sustained march for the winning points. Knapp slanted over from four yards out and Weinhold toed the extra point to make it 20 to 13.

The Dons were held deep in their own territory the rest of the way and didn't threaten.

End Dave Sitton Wins Weekly Award

Due to his outstanding defensive play against Mt. San Antonio, end Dave Sitton won the honor of Don of the Week in Vanderma's Clothing Store's weekly contest.

Sitton blocked a Mountie punt to set up a Don scoring opportunity and several times broke through to throw Mt. San Antonio runners for long losses.

Dave, a freshman who is playing his first year of college ball, won by an overwhelming margin. Last year he was a member of the Santa Ana High School varsity, playing both defense and offense at the end position.

Denbow Places Third At Mt. San Antonio

SAC's smooth striding Ed Denbow placed third in the Mt. San Antonio Invitational cross-country track meet Saturday, October 25. His time was 14 min. and 14 sec.

Bill Pasely of San Bernardino ran off with individual honors as he was the winner of the 2.7 mile run in 13 min. and 58 sec.

Santa Ana's thinclads, which consisted of Denbow, Bruce Horner, Ralph Krueger, Ed Winter, Roland Truex, Don Davis, Terrence Dakin, Paul Rumpfelt, Larry Tarrant, Louis Sabio, and Richard Woolfe, placed eighth in the meet.

Top team honors went to Glendale City College which scored the least number of points, 43. The other results were Mt. San Antonio, 87; San Bernardino, 113; Compton, 114; Santa Monica, 116; Long Beach, 211; Fullerton, 238; Santa Ana, 241; LACC, 251; ELAJC, 265; and Chaffey, 337.

DONS HOST SAN BERNARDINO IN MUNICIPAL BOWL TONIGHT

Co-leaders with Fullerton in the Eastern Conference race San Bernardino's unbeaten Indians, invade Santa Ana Municipal Bowl tonight in a game that may determine the local titlist. Kickoff time is 8 p. m.

Clyde William's Warriors, their split-T attack functioning with effortless precision, have rolled to three wins in a row since being held to a 7-7 tie with Compton in their season opener. San Diego JC, Eastern Arizona, and Orange Coast have fallen victims to Valley College by scores of 20-10, 52-7, and 14 to 0.

24 Returnees

With 24 returnees back from the '51 powerhouse which amassed 498 points compared to 49 for the foe, San Bernardino appears Rose Bowl bound. Backs Perry Jeter—whose 108 points last year ranked him as California's second highest jaycee scorer — Lenny Smith, Walt Gaffney, Jack Gray, and quarterback Don Meyer are among the key vets on hand.

Sporting a 3-1-1 slate the ever-dangerous Dons will be "up" for this one. A loss at this stage would knock Santa Ana out of contention for the conference crown.

If the Dons can sharpen their overhead game which flopped so miserably against Mt. San Antonio, tonight's tiff could either way. Both teams were idle last week and will be well rested and near top strength.

Nystrom Injured

Cook probably will stick to the same line-up that opened against Mt. San Antonio. That would include Garcia and Duchart at the flanks, Gustafson and Schnackerberg at the tackle positions, and Matsunaga and Schoenowitz at the guard posts. Tom Moore may fill in for the injured Larry Nystrom at center. Quarterback Bob Smith, halfbacks Augie Huesca and Harvey Bryan, and fullback Bob Griffith round out the back field.

The Braves won a hard fought 32-2 decision last year.
